

Blessing of Medals of St Benedict*

The priest who is to bless the medals of St. Benedict says:

℣. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

℟. Who made heaven and earth.

I PURGE you medals of evil by God ✠ the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth and of the sea and of all that they contain. O every power of the adversary, every cohort of the devil, every attack and appearance of Satan — get thee out of these medals and fly afar! And may they become for all who will use them a help for body and soul, in the name of the Father ✠ Almighty, in the name of Jesus ✠ Christ, His Son, our Lord, in the name of the Holy ✠ Spirit, the Paraclete, and in the love of the selfsame Lord Jesus Christ, Who shall come to judge the living and the dead and the world by fire. ℟. Amen.

Lord, have mercy on us. Christ, have mercy on us.

Lord, have mercy on us.

Our Father inaudibly until

℣. And lead us not into temptation.

℟. But deliver us from evil.

℣. Preserve thy servants.

℟. Who trust in thee, my God.

℣. Be unto us, O Lord, a tower of strength.

℟. In the face of the enemy.

℣. The Lord will grant strength to His people.

℟. The Lord will bless His people with peace.

℣. Send us, Lord, aid from on high.

℟. And from Sion watch over us.

℣. O Lord, hear my prayer.

℟. And let my cry come unto thee.

℣. The Lord be with you.

℟. And with thy spirit

Let us pray.

ALmighty God, lavish Dispenser of every good, we thy suppliants pray that, by the intercession of St. Benedict, thou wouldst pour out thy ✠ blessing on these sacred medals inscribed with letters and symbols appointed by thee. Let all who will wear them with minds intent on good works deserve to obtain health of body and spirit, the grace of making progress in holiness, as well as the indulgences which have been granted (to us). And may they escape by thy merciful help every onslaught and fraud of the devil, and finally stand before thee sinless and holy. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Let us pray.

OLORD Jesus Christ, thou didst will, in order to redeem the entire world, to be born of a Virgin and to submit to circumcision; to be repudiated by the Jews and betrayed with a kiss by Judas; to be bound in chains, crowned with thorns, thy hands and feet pierced with nails, to be crucified between robbers, thy side pierced with a lance, and to die at last on the Cross! Through this thy sacred Passion, I humbly appeal to thee to drive afar all snares and deceits of the devil from him who devoutly calls upon thy holy name, using these words and symbols appointed by thee, and may it please thee to escort him unto the port of salvation. Who livest and reignest throughout all eternity. R. Amen.

May the blessing of almighty God, Father, Son, ✠ and Holy Spirit come upon these medals and all who wear them, and remain for all time. R. Amen.

The priest sprinkles the medal with holy water.

*From The Roman Ritual (1945) edited by Fr. Philip Weller

This blessing must be administered by a priest, not a deacon; see Code of Canon Law c.1169§3, Universae Ecclesiae, Summorum Pontificum.